

4 Types of Sentences

Thursday 11th June

Guidance

- Read through the PowerPoint to learn about the 4 types of sentences.
- There is a reminder at the top of the worksheet.
- Have a go at the first activity
 - Read the sentences
 - Add the correct punctuation to the end of each sentence
 - Colour in to show what type of sentence it is. Use the key to help you
 - Answers are on the next sheet
- Write your own sentences. Include one of each type.

Statements

Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end with a full stop.

Rainbows have 7 colours.
They are beautiful to look at.

Questions

Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

What did you have for dinner?

We looked at questions in Tuesday's lesson. Can you remember any questions you wrote from that lesson?

Commands

Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are found in instructions but can also be urgent or angry and can be very short.

Help me!

Stop doing that..

Exclamations

An exclamation is a sentence beginning with 'What' or 'How'. It is a full sentence, including a verb, which ends with an exclamation mark.

What a dangerous mountain to climb!

What amazing children they are!

How kind of him to do that!
